

UNIVERSITY of the WESTERN CAPE

Lecture Series

Religion and Sustainable Development in the Digital Age – Before, During and After the Corona Crisis

Programme

25 October 16:00-18:00 CEST / South African time; 17:00-19:00 Tanzanian time

Mussa S. Muhoja, Ardhi University, Tanzania: Faith Based Development and Public Sphere in the Digital Era

01 November 16:00-18:00 CET; 17:00-19:00 South African time; 18:00-20:00 Tanzanian time

Maria Frahm-Arp, University of Johannesburg, South Africa: Rabboni Church: A Case Study of an Online Church

08 November 16:00-18:00 CET; 17:00-19:00 South African time; 18:00-20:00 Tanzanian time

Giulia Evolvi, Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands: Digital Religion: Gender, Migration, and Politics

15 November 16:00-18:00 CET; 17:00-19:00 South African time; 18:00-20:00 Tanzanian time

Susanna Trotta, Deborah Iannotti and Boris Rähme, Bruno Kessler Foundation, Center for Religious Studies, Italy: Religious or Belief Actors' Engagements with Artificial Intelligence

22 November 16:00-18:00 CET; 17:00-19:00 South African time; 18:00-20:00 Tanzanian time

Nicolas Mathee, Information Technology Service Intelligence (ITSI), South Africa: The Covid 19 Pandemic as Liminal Space for the Crafting of New Rituals

29 November 16:00-18:00 CET; 17:00-19:00 South African time; 18:00-20:00 Tanzanian time

Claudia Jetter, EKD Institute for Research on Religious and Ideological Issues (EZW), Germany: Spiritual Influencers – New Forms of Authorization and Community Formation in the Digital Age?

The Lecture Series will be held on Zoom. Kindly send an email to Ms Marie-Luise Frost (marie-luise.frost@hu-berlin.de) to register. The link will be sent upon registration.

Please note the time differences and the fact that Central European Time will change from Summer time (CEST) to Winter time (CET) on 31 October which might affect the time frame depending on the country you are based in.